September 22, 2008

SIR:

1. Se Hwan Yang hereby state:
1. That I am a co-inventor of the above-identified patent application.
2. That, on June 28, 2003, I deposited a sample of DPFC325 with the Korean Cell Line Research Foundation(KCLRF) of Cancer Research Institute, College of Medicine, Seoul National University which is an International Depository Authority, at #28 Yongon-dong, Chongno-Gu, Seoul, 110-744, Republic of Korea, in compliance with the Budapest Treaty on the International Recognition of the Deposit of Microorganisms for the Purpose of Patent Procedure as Deposit Accession Number KCLRF-BP-00082.

A copy of the accession agreement is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

3. I hereby assure the United States Patent and Trademark Office and the public that (a) all restrictions on the availability to the public of the deposited material referred to in paragraph 2 will be irrevocably removed upon issuance of a United States patent of which any of such deposited material is the subject; (b) the deposited material will be maintained for a period of at least five years after the most recent request for the furnishing of a sample of any of the deposited material was received by the KCLRF and, in any case, for a period of at least 30 years after the date of deposit or for the effective life of such patent, whichever is longer; (c) should any of the deposits become non-viable or mutated, or otherwise incapable of being furnished by the depository upon request due to the condition of the deposit, it will be replaced by Applicants; and (d) access to the cultures will be available to the Commissioner during the pendency of the patent application or to one determined by the Commissioner to be entitled to such cultures under 37 C.F.R. §1.14 and 35 U.S.C. §122.

I hereby declare further that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true and further that I make these statements with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under §1011 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.
